

I'm in favor of portable cellular telephone numbers. I use the cellular number for my business and if I want to change service providers, I lose my number and my business gets cut off. Then I need to redo all of my stationary.